

The little Lemon Leaf Diner

Where Friends and Flavor Meet

LUNCH

While living in California, JR and his friends started a supper club. Every Thursday night they went to a different house where the host was required to prepare the meal from scratch. One night, it was JR's turn. Waylaid by a late day at work, he had no time to stop at the market for fresh ingredients or flowers for the table. His friends wouldn't let him off the hook.

Always clever and resourceful, and with ingredients he had on hand, JR made his grandmother's chicken and dumplings. A quick trip to the backyard produced fresh lemons and lemon leaves to decorate the table. From then on, JR's dining room became known as "The Lemon Leaf Café."

Returning home from California, JR brought with him the spirit of that evening: always creative, always freshly prepared.

I truly want to thank my wonderful friends in California—Jay, Robert, Jan, Debby, Barb, Kurt, Kim, Stephanie, Tad, and Steve—who were a big part of my life and were all included in the weekly dinner party. I miss and love them so much. Their friendship is a wonderful gift.

Welcome to The Little Lemon Leaf Diner!
